

ROCKIN' RULES

Treat others how you want to be treated.

Treat all equipment like it was your own.

Do not talk back to instructors.

No noodling (playing instrument or talking during instruction).

No food, drinks or candy in Performance Halls or practice rooms.

Do not leave the premises without an instructor.

Do not touch equipment or appliances without permission from an instructor.

Negative attitude and lack of participation is not allowed.

No drugs, alcohol or smoking (no exceptions).

Watch your language.

As part of a team, each Rocker must attend Camp every scheduled day.

ROCKERS AND PARENTS:

The Rock Camp USA experience has ALWAYS ended with happy Campers. Therefore, while you may feel that you have an exceptionally good reason to complain to an instructor or the Office, please do not.

Our instructors are professionals who know how best to handle their group. Trust that they will make the best decisions possible for all involved.

These rules apply during on and off campus Camp activities.

Any Rocker unable to follow these Rules may face expulsion from Camp.
(NO REFUNDS)
